VOLUNTARY, CONFIDENTIAL SELF-IDENTIFICATION OF ABORIGINAL ANCESTRY

All parents/guardians of First Nation, Métis and Inuit students who are under 18 years of age have the right to voluntarily self-identify their Aboriginal ancestry. By self-identifying, you help to monitor the success of Board programs and services, and to identify ways we can support First Nation, Métis and Inuit student success in all our schools. (Please see DCDSB Policy #PO516)

This form is to be completed by parents/guardians or students 18 or over. Families who self-identified previously do not need to complete this form.
